Tasting notes:

Linden flowers and overripe fruit aromas are dominating the nose. The flavours are very rich and multilayered with some spiciness and complexity. Dried fruit, oily seed character, supported by thrilling, yet well-rounded acidity. The long finish suggests almond and fine pungency.

A Hungarian variety, which is year after year one of our great favourite. The playful fruitiness is combined with depth and concentration, beside the long ageing potential, truly exciting, mature aromas are developing.

What do we recommend with it?

Fine match with spicy meat dishes, creamy-mushroom pasta.
