Tasting notes:

Complex nose, stony minerality, underlined by floral, oily seeds. The flavour profile is dominated by the unique, complex character of Juhfark, accompanied by ripe grape aromas. The finish is truly long, full of finesse, elegance and persistent acidity.

Juhfark in a serious style. Such depth and concentration can only be made from the best vineyards in combination with low yields and carefully selected grapes.

What do we recommend with it?

Excellent match to Thai cuisine or spicy Hungarian dishes.
